Chapter 1 by Eden Campbell

I wasn't always unfortunate. As far as I could recall anyway.

Life had generally been good to me.

Throughout most of my younger years, I was the top of my class, regardless of the subject. Teachers and parents loved me.

Then come high school, I was Prom King, captain of the hockey AND the science clubs, and head prefect.

At 17, I was one of the youngest awarded a scholarship to one of the most prestigious universities in the country... and I was even lucky enough to win a car!

At 21, I graduated, full honours and Valedictorian, and walked straight into a job without so much as a handshake.

So why, on my 24th birthday, did everything suddenly go downhill?
